1. A meeting attended by about 25 persons representing various Greek socialist groups and organizations was held on 29 September at the law office of Evangelopoulos.
2. The KKE was not invited to this meeting. Among those present, besides Evangelopoulos, who acted as presiding officer of the meeting, were Yottopoulos (also known as Vitcu), Pontikes, Meliades, Vogiatzis, Papaioannou, and George Economou. The meeting was called by Yottopoulos, who appeared as representative of the convention held in Paris in early summer for the achievement of a "United Socialist States of Europe".
3. The subject of the meeting was Greece's part in furthering the achievement of the socialist plan for the unification of Europe. Yottopoulos and others spoke on this subject, and, after some discussion, it was decided to form a temporary committee to discuss this matter in detail and to lay the foundation for a permanent committee to carry on the work begun in Paris.
